

Bits 'n Bites

by Renee

For those who love a party there will be one in Gardena at the well known Little Caesars cocktail lounge. The celebration will be next Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 23 and 24 at the Gardena bistro. Entertainment will be from the talented Johnny Prophet and his Propheters, Dave and Tiny. The festivities will mark the second anniversary of this "show place of Gardena." For your added enjoyment a buffet will be served. So if you're interested in good food, top entertainment, and all around fun don't miss the happenings at Little Caesars Oct. 23 and 24.

Sometimes one has to go no further than your back yard, so to speak, to find some wholesome and unnatural entertainment for the whole family.

Such is the case of "the world's most unusual-unique 18-hole miniature golf course." The most exciting of the 18 holes are hidden in the fairyland interior—where else but at the Radium Theater Drive-In Tower. Also there is a game room in tower—featuring all types of games.

Employment Chief Speaks to Rotary

Irving H. Perluss, director of the State Department of Employment, spoke yesterday at the Torrance Rotary Club. Perluss was formerly Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Los Angeles office. Prior to this position, he headed the Public Welfare Section of the Attorney General's office from 1952-58.

Footlighters To Present 'Ninotchka'

"Ninotchka," a romantic comedy, will be presented by the Footlight Theater at the city plunge, 3331 Torrance Blvd., on Oct. 26 and 27, Nov. 2, 3, 9, 10, 16, and 17 at 8:30.

Gordon See, the current president of Footlight, is directing. Heading the cast in the title role, is Valerie McMillan. Bill Plaser co-stars. The three fumbling Soviets, Bibinski, Ivanov, Brankov, are portrayed by Lou Verne, Arnold Rosenfeld, and Marvin Parks respectively.

Others in the cast include, Iona Claxton, Jim Claxton, Claudia Wilkes and Bill Kamper. For ticket information, call PL 4-1689. Group rates are available.

Tickets for Ice Capades Now on Sale

The 22nd edition of Icecapades opens Nov. 27 at the Long Beach Arena.

Featured in this year's presentation will be a production based on Tchaikovsky's Fifth Symphony, Richard Garrett and his "Jet Propelled" number, veteran Bobby Specht, Aja Zanova, and newcomer Eric Waite.

Advance seat reservations for each of the nine performances of Icecapades Nov. 27 through Dec. 2 are now being taken at 802 W. Willow, Long Beach. Children will be admitted half-price on Wednesday and Thursday nights.

New Chinese Restaurant Now in Lomita

A new, modern Chinese-American restaurant is now open in the Lomita Plaza Shopping Center at Pacific Coast Highway and Walnut Street.

Featuring a varied menu of both Chinese and American foods, the firm, Chin's Chinese American Restaurant, located at 1841 Pacific Coast Hwy., will be open from 11 a.m. to 3 a.m. six days a week. Owner and operator is David Chin, who also operates the Tiki Kai Restaurant near the South Bay Shopping Center, and Chin's Chinese Garden in San Pedro.

Top Insurance Executive to Speak on Friday

The second monthly meeting of 1962-63 Harbor Assn. of Life Underwriters will meet tomorrow at a noon luncheon at the Palms Cafe. Charles A. Waters, executive director of agencies for the western home office of Prudential, will be the guest speaker and will discuss "Handicaps to Success."

steel kitchen, gas air-conditioning, a colorful atmosphere, and a menu to suit nearly every taste.

The restaurant, which remains open until 3 a.m., will cater to after-theater goers and groups. Both Chinese and American dishes will be offered at reasonable prices, Chin said.

Free, paved and lighted parking is available in front of the firm. Telephone number is DA 6-9263.

A new opportunity will be given Phyllis McGuire of the popular McGuire Sisters singing trio. Miss McGuire has been signed for the guest star role for "Come Blow Your Horn," a Bud Yorkin and Norm Lear's Tandem Production film. The film will be produced in association with Frank Sinatra's Essex Productions soon for a Paramount release.

Other stars of "Come Blow Your Horn" are Dean Martin, Dan Blocker, Frank Sinatra, Tony Bill, Lee J. Cobb, Molly Picon, Barbara Rush and Jill St. John.

Locally the celluloid world has an outstanding array of excellent motion pictures to offer to the Torrance gentry. The Radium Theater in downtown Torrance is featuring "Sayonara" with Marlon Brando and "My Geisha" with Shirley Maclaine Wednesday through Saturday and "Phantom of the Opera" along with "The Pit and the Pendulum" Sunday and Monday. The Drive-in buffets also have a treat in store for them. The Radium Theater this week is running a first for this area. The newest Tarzan Jack Mahoney stars in "Tarzan Goes to India" Wednesday through Saturday. Along with this jungle thriller, "Panic in the Year Zero" with Ray Milland will be on the program.
